

AGENDA

Blue Dragon Seminars Presents: Surviving Active Shooters and PTSD (Tues/Weds) October 15-16, 2019

Two-Day Training Event covering same agenda on each day (8-Hrs KS-CPOST eligible)
Comfort Inn & Suites Meeting Room, 1601 Super Plaza, Hutchinson KS 67501*

This course is FREE for anyone in the law enforcement community, firefighters, first responders or U.S. active military and military veterans

Decorated law enforcement and military professionals – FREE - Register NOW at: www.BDIC.net

Tues/Weds - October 15-16, 2019 – 8:00 am to 5:00 pm (Emcee: Mark Jones)

Stopping an ISIS Inspired Terrorist Attack/Lessons Learned – Greg Stevens, retired Garland Police Officer, 2016 recipient of the Presidential Medal of Valor, in recognition of his bravery and trained preparedness, stopped two ISIS inspired terrorists before they could commit mass murder in Garland, Texas. 1.5 hours

Surviving an ISIS Threat and Counterterrorism Today/Mark Jones moderating – Colonel Jim Frawley, retired colonel-inspector general, United States Marine Corps, Ft. Worth police officer, ISIS survivor and BDIC partner. Col. Frawley will inform us of what threats are of greatest concern today and how to prepare for them. 1 hour

Protecting Places of Worship/First Responder to Active Mass Killer – Steve Padin, retired 25 year decorated police veteran for the Buffalo, NY Police Department, lead firearms instructor, combat tactics instructor, former black belt instructor and international competitor in Tae Kwon-Do; can include topics of Confront & Neutralize; Run-Hide-Fight; On Scene Crisis Tactical Planning; Emergency Plan/Drills; Basic First Aid. 1.5 hours

Emotional Survival, PTSD & Civil Rights Liability Arising Out of Fatal Incidents – Mark S. Jones, trial lawyer and assistant college professor, with expertise in criminal law, criminal procedure, constitutional law, and Section 1983 liability. Former chief deputy prosecutor, head of the Homicide Unit, Major Crime Division, head of the Criminal Division, county counselor, chief legal advisor to the prosecuting attorney, county sheriff, the Department of Corrections in Jackson County, Missouri and BDIC co-founder/partner. 2 hours

PTSD and Suicide Risk – Dr. Jason Deselms, PhD, VA Suicide Prevention Coordinator, Clinical Psychologist, U.S. Army Reserves Medical Science Corps with the 1908th Medical Detachment Control Unit – 1.25 hours

PTSD, My Story of Survival and Concluding Remarks – Paul Vick, BDIC managing member/co-founder, former FBI supervisory special agent, former Wichita Police Department detective. .75 hours

Reporting of the 8 continuing education hours received will be the responsibility of the attendee and his/her agency head or appointing authority.*

Lodging: ask for Blue Dragon Seminars group rate – Comfort Inn & Suites, Tel. 620-669-5200, King Suite $89.00 w/o tax per night (as available); Hampton Inn, Tel. 620-665-9800, King room $99.99 w/o tax per night

Blue Dragon International Consultants, LLC – 8918 W. 21st Street N. Suite #200, Wichita, KS 67205; Kansas: 316-737-6410; Missouri: 816-522-7222

AGENDA

Blue Dragon Seminars Presents: Surviving Active Shooters and PTSD
Hutchinson, Kansas – October 15-16, 2019

Sponsored by: Blue Dragon Seminars, the Wichita Metro Crime Commission & an anonymous donor
Decorated special agent, law enforcement and military; Life changing Blue Dragon Seminars Presents series; Register NOW at: www.BDIC.net

Greg Stevens; Col. James Frawley; Attorney Mark Jones

Steve Padin; Paul Vick; Dr. Jason Deselms, PhD

WICHITA METRO
CRIME COMMISSION
EST. 1952 INC.
WORKING WITH YOU TO PREVENT CRIME

Points of contact: Paul W. Vick, BDIC CEO, Tel. 316-737-6410; Email: pvick@bdic.net
Randy Henderson, Sheriff Reno County Sheriff Department; randy.henderson@renolec.com
Jeff Hooper, Chief Hutchinson Police Department; jeff.hooper@renolec.com
Thad Pickard, Captain Hutchinson Police Department, thad.pickard@renolec.com